

International Finance, Econ 3331
Assignment 2 (Fall 2011) – Evaluation

Knowledge (2 points):

- definitions are clear and correct (the law of one price, the purchasing power parity, traded goods, non-traded goods)

Research (2 points):

- specified the data and variables (A)
- gave appropriate attributes to sources (A)
- explained the methodology (A)
- weak research (F)

Analysis (3 points):

- integrated information by discussing implications (A)
- clear progression of ideas building on a central theme (A)
- faulty analysis (D)
- no apparent line of argument (F)

Writing style and structure (3 points):

- introduction states purpose, is explicit and grabs attention (A)
- effective use of figure(s), table(s) (A)
- conclusion summarizes/integrates/discusses findings (A)
- frequent spelling and grammar mistakes (F)
- ignored style manual (F)
- lacks a clear introduction (F)
- rambles without obvious structure and conclusion (F)

Total (out of 10 points)
